Congratulations on the completion of your Undergraduate Research and Artistry Day Project!

Once your project is deposited into Huskie Commons, it will reside alongside other scholarly works created by the faculty, staff, and students of Northern Illinois University.

Your project will be made accessible via the internet, preserved for your future reference, and have a permanent, unique link that can be used on your resume, graduate school applications, etc.

To start the deposit process, go to:

http://commons.lib.niu.edu/
Start by logging in...

...using your NIU ID and password.
Find your community

Head to your community: the Office of Student Engagement and Experiential Learning.

Select the collection you wish to deposit your work into. In this case, the Undergraduate Research and Artistry Day.
Start your submission

Click here to initiate your submission...

...and begin describing your URAD Project.
Describe your urad project

Author(s):
Please include the full name of the author, including middle initial and year of birth, in the following format: Last, First M.I., YYYY-. For example: "Doe, John Q., 1985-". Year of birth is not required, but preferred.

Schumacher, Jaime L., 1976-

Advisor:
Enter the name of the faculty advisor. If known, include the middle initial and year of birth.

Gibbs, Patricia A.

The add button allows you to include multiple authors, advisors, etc.

Select the type(s) and genre(s) of your project. You will have the opportunity to deposit multiple files (ex. both a poster & research paper)

Still need more details!
More Details, Please

Add some subject keywords, being as descriptive as possible. If you were trying to find material on the subject of your project, what would you type into a search engine?

Copy and paste the abstract from your project, or create it here.

Please be sure to include the word “pages” or other descriptor. For example, use “43 minutes” if your project is a video that is 43 minutes in length.
Upload your project into the repository.

You can upload multiple files.

Choose a file format that is archival-friendly, like a pdf. For format recommendations go to: http://www.digitalpreservation.gov/formats/
Final Steps

Review Submission

Describe Item

Author(s): Schumacher, Jaime L., 1976–
Title: Once a Huskie, Always a Huskie
Advisor: Gibbs, Patricia A.
Research Program: Research Rookies
Publisher: Northern Illinois University
Submission Date: 2017-06
Type: Text
Genre: Conference Poster
Language: English (United States)
Rights: NIU theses are protected by copyright. They may be viewed from Huskie Commons for any purpose, but reproduction or distribution in any format is prohibited without the written permission of the authors.

Subject Keywords:
early education teacher
continuing education

Verify all the details...

...then read the distribution license and complete your submission.
Once you submit your project, it will be reviewed for accuracy. Upon approval, you will receive an email confirmation with your project’s permanent identifier and your project will become accessible in Huskie Commons. http://commons.lib.niu.edu/

Your project’s permanent URI can also be found here.

The details you entered will be found in the full item record.

The file(s) can be accessed by clicking on the file icon.
Congratulations!

For questions or assistance with depositing your URAD Project into Huskie Commons, please contact Jaime Schumacher, Sr. Director – Digital Collections & Scholarship at the University Libraries.

jschumacher@niu.edu
815.753.0576
Founders Memorial Library 145D